"Harris Home"

This residence located in Calloway County, Fulton, Missouri, was built in the year 1850 by J. Jenkin for Thomas B. Harris.

Mr. Harris was one of the old pioneers of Calloway County. He organized the first bank in the City of Fulton in the year 1853, then called "The Western Bank of Missouri". His son William C. Harris is now the President of the bank now known as "Calloway Bank".

Mr. Harris was a very prominent man in the County and quite a social leader.

The front of the residence is constructed of brick and the rear is frame. It is two stories high, Colonial Style. Front porch is constructed of White Pine.

Information from Calloway County History and William C. Harris,

EUGENE L. PLEITSCH.
